Part I:

Medicaid and CHIP Eligibility for Immigrants

General Immigrant Eligibility Rules for Medicaid and CHIP

- Under the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA) of 1996, the following groups may be eligible for Medicaid and CHIP:
 - "Qualified" immigrants who entered the U.S. before 8/22/96
 - "Qualified" immigrants who reach the end of a 5-year waiting period (i.e. legal permanent residents/green card holders)
 - "Qualified" immigrants exempt from the 5-year waiting period (e.g., refugees, asylees, Cuban/Haitian entrants, trafficking victims, veteran families)
- States have some flexibility from certain federal rules as defined by federal statute to vary.

NOTE

Immigrants who do not meet these immigrant eligibility rules (i.e. “qualified” immigrants in the five-year bar and “not qualified” immigrants), may be eligible for Medicaid payment of limited emergency services if they otherwise meet all Medicaid eligibility standards

“Qualified” Immigrants for Medicaid and CHIP

“Qualified” Immigrants (categories defined by statute, many of these are exempt from the 5-year bar)

- Lawful Permanent Residents (LPR/green card holders)
- Refugees
- Asylees
- Cuban/Haitian entrants
- Persons who were paroled into the U.S. for more than a year
- Conditional entrants
- Certain domestic violence and trafficking survivors and their derivatives
- Certain American Indians
- Persons granted withholding of deportation/removal

Five-Year Waiting Period for Medicaid & CHIP

- Many “qualified” immigrants who entered the U.S. on or after August 22, 1996 are subject to a five-year waiting period (also know as “the five-year bar”)
- The five-years begin when an immigrant obtains a “qualified” immigration status
- Many “qualified” immigrants are not subject to the five-year bar:
 - Refugees, asylees, persons granted withholding of deportation/removal (even if they later become LPRs)
 - Cuban/Haitian entrant, Amerasian, Iraqi or Afghan special immigrant status, trafficking survivor (even if they later become LPRs)
 - Qualified immigrants who are U.S. veterans or on active military duty and their spouses or children
 - Children (state option, see slide 6)
 - Pregnant women (state option, see slide 6)

Note: For example, in Alabama, Mississippi, North Dakota, Texas, Virginia and Wyoming immigrant eligibility rules are even more strict than the general federal rules. For more information, see this resource from NILC - <http://nilc.org/document.html?id=108>.

States Have Some Flexibility to Vary from the General Eligibility Rules

Federal Medicaid/CHIP Options

- CHIPRA gave states the option to cover children and/or pregnant women:
 - Who are lawfully present, and otherwise eligible
 - Without a 5-year waiting period
 - Regardless of date of entry into the U.S.
 - 29 states, DC and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands have taken up the option
- Under the “unborn child” option in CHIP, states can opt to provide certain medical services to pregnant women, regardless of immigration status, if they are not otherwise eligible for Medicaid

State-Funded Options

- States can cover additional immigrants with state-only funds.

Emergency-Only Medicaid & Other Programs Available to All

Medicaid payment for limited services related to an emergency medical condition is available to people who meet all the state's Medicaid eligibility requirements except for citizenship or immigration status, including:

- Qualified immigrants who are in the five-year bar
- Lawfully present, but not qualified immigrants, such as nonimmigrant visa holders (i.e., students, temporary workers, etc.), Temporary Protected Status (TPS) and many others, excluding certain lawfully present immigrants that a state may have opted to cover under Medicaid and/or CHIP
- Undocumented immigrants

Other programs available to ALL:

- Programs using federal health care block grants: mental health, maternal and child health, family planning, communicable diseases, immunizations
- Programs providing health services necessary to protect life or safety: emergency medical, food, or shelter, mental health crisis, domestic violence, crime victim assistance, disaster relief
- Hospital financial assistance programs or charity care
- Community Health Centers/FQHCs, Migrant Health Centers

 - May have consequences on ability to renew or obtain certain nonimmigrant visas → consult an immigration lawyer

Eligibility Landscape for Most Immigrants in States that have Expanded Medicaid

Eligibility Landscape for Most Immigrants in States that have not Expanded Medicaid

- Rashid and Leila are eligible for Medicaid. They are U.S. citizens and their income is below the income limit for Medicaid in Oregon.
- Miriam is lawfully present but is not a “qualified” immigrant.
- Miriam is eligible for PTC even though her income is below 100% FPL because she is not eligible for Medicaid based on her immigration status

Scenario 2:

- Karina was born in Florida and is a U.S. citizen
- Ricky has a student visa and plans to complete his program of study at Florida State University in 2017

- Ricky is eligible for enrollment in a QHP with a PTC, but its unclear if attesting to residency in Florida will negatively impact his eligibility for visa
- Eva is not applying for coverage, she would not meet the immigration requirement for insurance affordability programs because of the exclusion of DACAmented individuals, even though she is authorized to work and has a SSN
- Eva is not subject to the penalty for going without coverage
