

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION LITIGATION

There is an on-going lawsuit about the way people are treated in this Border Patrol facility, including: (1) if there is adequate food and drinking water, (2) if the cells and hold areas are adequately cleaned and sanitary, (3) if people are provided access to showers and hygiene items like soap, toothpaste, toothbrushes, diapers, and sanitary napkins, (4) if people are provided beds or bedding, (5) if there has been interference with your ability to sleep, (6) if there is access to medical care and medicines, and (7) if the facility is kept at a proper temperature. All persons who are detained in this facility are part of this lawsuit to ensure their rights are not violated by the detention conditions here.

The attorneys working on this lawsuit on behalf of people detained in this facility work at: American Civil Liberties Union of Arizona, American Immigration Council, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights of San Francisco, the law firm Morrison & Foerster LLP, and the National Immigration Law Center. If you are detained in this facility, these lawyers want to hear about your experience with the conditions discussed above. These lawyers are not able to assist you with your immigration case or any other issues.

If you wish to talk to the counsel listed above about the conditions of your detention in this facility, you may call the number below. Please be prepared to provide your name, your A number if you know it, and a phone number or email address where you can be reached. If you cannot reach us while you are detained here, you can contact us after you leave the facility.

From the United States.....866-234-4503 (toll free) From Mexico.....001-415-268-6406
---

Border Patrol will provide you with a copy of this notice when you leave this facility. If you do not receive a copy of this notice when leaving, please ask any Border Patrol agent for one.

Please keep all your paperwork and notes with you after leaving the facility. Your immigration identification number, known as an "A number," is listed on your paperwork. Please provide us with that number when you contact us.