* Table last systematically updated in 10/11. Endnote 6 (p. 4) revised 2/14; note 10 last revised 8/15; note 8 last revised 4/21; note 7 last revised 7/21. Revisions made to the table in 1/17: “Are under age 18” deleted from SNAP row in “before Aug. 22, 1996” column (p. 1); and “and ‘qualified’ abused spouses and children” deleted from HUD row (under “Eligible except:”) in “before Aug. 22, 1996” and “on or after Aug. 22, 1996” columns (p. 3). Revisions made in 1/21: “Citizens of Micronesia, the Marshall Islands, and Palau,” and accompanying footnote, added to “Full-Scope Medicaid” row in “on or after Aug. 22, 1996” and “Not Qualified Immigrants” columns (p. 2); and “Individuals who lawfully reside in the U.S. pursuant to a Compact of Free Association (COFA) are considered “qualified” immigrants for purposes of Medicaid” added to definition of “qualified’ immigrants” (p. 4).

†† Iraqi and Afghan special immigrant visa holders (SIV) and special immigrant parolees (who have applied for SIV status) are eligible for federal benefits to the same extent as refugees. Other Afghans granted parole between July 31, 2021, and September 30, 2022 — and their spouses and children, and parents/guardians of unaccompanied children granted parole after that date — also are eligible for federal benefits to the same extent as refugees. Eligibility for this group continues until March 31, 2023, or the end of their parole term, whichever is later. (This note added 10/4/21.)

††† Ukrainians paroled into the U.S. between February 24, 2022, and September 30, 2023 – and their spouses and children, and parents, guardians or primary caregivers of unaccompanied children paroled into the U.S. after September 30, 2023 – are eligible for federal benefits to the same extent as refugees. (There is an exception for an initial resettlement program). Benefits are available to this group regardless of the length of their parole period –but eligibility continues only until their parole is terminated. (This note added 5/24/22.)

KEY TERMS USED IN TABLE (Immigrant Eligibility for Federal Programs)

“Qualified” immigrants are: (1) lawful permanent residents (LPRs); (2) refugees, asylees, persons granted withholding of deportation/removal, conditional entry (in effect prior to Apr. 1, 1980), or paroled into the U.S. for at least one year; (3) Cuban/Haitian entrants; (4) battered spouses and children with a pending or approved (a) self-petition for an immigrant visa, or (b) immigrant visa filed for a spouse or child by a U.S. citizen or LPR, or (c) application for cancellation of removal/suspension of deportation, whose need for benefits has a substantial connection to the battery or cruelty (parent/child of such battered child/spouse are also “qualified”); and (5) victims of trafficking and their derivative beneficiaries who have obtained a T visa or whose application for a T visa sets forth a prima facie case. (A broader group of trafficking victims who are certified by or receive an eligibility letter from the Office of Refugee Resettlement are eligible for benefits funded or administered by federal agencies, without regard to their immigration status.) Individuals who lawfully reside in the U.S. pursuant to a Compact of Free Association (COFA) are considered “qualified” immigrants for purposes of Medicaid.

“Not qualified” immigrants include all noncitizens who do not fall under the “qualified” immigrant categories.

NOTES

- 1 Eligibility may be affected by deeming: a sponsor's income/resources may be added to the immigrant's in determining eligibility. Exemptions from deeming may apply.
- 2 LPRs are eligible if they have worked 40 qualifying quarters in the U.S. Immigrants also get credit toward their 40 quarters for work performed (1) by parents when the immigrant was under 18; and (2) by spouse during the marriage (unless the marriage ended in divorce or annulment). No credit is given for a quarter worked after Dec. 31, 1996, if a federal means-tested public benefit (SSI, food stamps, TANF, Medicaid, or CHIP) was received in that quarter.
- 3 Children are not subject to sponsor deeming in the SNAP program.
- 4 Disability-related benefits include SSI, Social Security disability, state disability or retirement pension, railroad retirement disability, veteran's disability, disability-based Medicaid, and disability-related General Assistance if the disability determination uses criteria as stringent as those used by federal SSI.
- 5 In Indiana, Mississippi, Ohio, South Carolina, and Texas, TANF is available only to immigrants who entered the U.S. on or after Aug. 22, 1996, who are: (1) LPRs credited with 40 quarters of work; (2) veterans, active-duty military (and their spouse, unremarried surviving spouse, or child); or (3) refugees, asylees, persons granted withholding of deportation/removal, Cuban/Haitian entrants, victims of trafficking, and Amerasian immigrants during the five years after obtaining this status. Indiana provides TANF to "refugees" listed in (3) regardless of the date they obtained that status and does not provide benefits to post-Aug. 22, 1996 entrants listed in (1). Mississippi does not address eligibility for Cuban/Haitian entrants or Amerasian immigrants.
- 6 In Wyoming, lawfully residing pregnant women are eligible for Medicaid regardless of their date of entry into the U.S. Otherwise, only LPRs with 40 quarters of work credit, abused immigrants, parolees, veterans, active duty military (and their spouse, unremarried surviving spouse, or child), refugees, asylees, persons granted withholding of deportation/removal, Cuban/Haitian entrants, and Amerasian immigrants who entered the U.S. prior to Aug. 22, 1996, are eligible for full-scope Medicaid.
- 7 All states provide Medicaid to "qualified" immigrant veterans, active duty military (and their spouse, unremarried surviving spouse, or child) regardless of their date of entry into the U.S. A few states deny Medicaid to qualified immigrants who entered the U.S. on or after August 22, 1996, unless they are LPRs credited with 40 quarters of work (MS, MT, ND, SC, SD, TX, WY), and/or limit eligibility for refugees, asylees, persons granted withholding of deportation/removal, Cuban/Haitian entrants, trafficking survivors, persons granted Iraqi or Afghan special immigrant status or Amerasian immigrants, to the seven-year period after obtaining this status (AL, MS, MT, SC, TX, VA, WV). In Texas and Alabama, Amerasian immigrants are eligible only during the five years after obtaining this status. However, South Carolina provides Medicaid to people granted withholding of removal, without a time limit; South Carolina and Montana provide Medicaid to other "qualified" immigrants who have credit for 40 quarters of work history in the U.S.; Wyoming provides full-scope Medicaid to "qualified" abused immigrants and persons paroled into the U.S. regardless of their date of entry into the U.S.; and some of these states provide Medicaid to lawfully residing children (VA, SC, TX) or pregnant women (SC, WY) regardless of their date of entry. Texas and Virginia offer prenatal care regardless of a woman's immigration status under the CHIP option referenced in note 8, below.
- 8 In states that election the CHIP program's option, prenatal care is available regardless of the pregnant person's immigration status. The scope of coverage depends in part on how the option is implemented.
- 9 For applications based on Social Security numbers issued on or after Jan. 1, 2004: Must have been assigned a Social Security number that was, at the time assigned or at any later time, valid for work purposes. Alternatively, must have been admitted to the U.S. temporarily for business or as a crewman when the relevant work quarters were earned.
- 10 For a list of states providing medical assistance to additional categories of immigrants, either with state funds or under the option (a) to provide federal Medicaid and CHIP to lawfully residing children and pregnant persons regardless of their date of entry into the U.S. or (b) to provide prenatal care regardless of the pregnant person's immigration status, under the CHIP option, see the table "Medical Assistance Programs for Immigrants in Various States," at www.nilc.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/11/med-services-for-immigrants-in-states.pdf.
